September 11, 2009 at noon.

Representatives from the Fire Department, Police Department, Falmouth Hospital's Emergency Department and members of the military will gather around the Lilly Lobby American Flag to reflect on the events of 9/11. Speakers will also address the importance of emergency preparedness and the extensive collaborative efforts that have occurred in our community since 2001. Reverend Sally J. Miller, Falmouth Hospital Chaplain, encourages the public to attend and participate in this commemorative event.

Falmouth Hospital's Pastoral Care Program in conjunction with the Upper Cape Chaplaincy and the Falmouth Clergy Association is sponsoring this program.

organizations that are engaged in projects that help create a strong, stable, and diverse arts and culture industry on Cape Cod, and contribute positively to the quality of life and economic vitality of the region. Preference is given to specific program initiatives, particularly those enhancing the arts education of learners of all ages, and to collaborative efforts within the arts community.

The AFCC distributed more than $55,000 in grants to 45 individual artists and cultural organizations in the past 12 months. Grant funds are made possible by the proceeds of the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod's annual TD Banknorth Pops by the Sea concert.

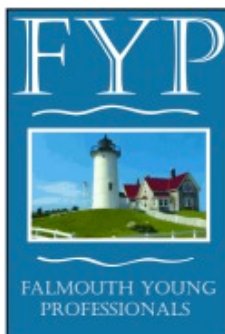

Guidelines and application materials are available on the AFCC website www.artsfoundation.org or by calling 508-362-0066.

About the AFCC

For general questions or to RSVP your attendance and participation, please contact Linnea Walsh by close of business Monday, September 21, 2009 at linnea.walsh@state.ma.us or call 617-727-4900 x224.

Please join us to see how the Commonwealth of Massachusetts helps businesses, workers, consumers and taxpayers by tackling workplace fraud. The general public, businesses, labor organizations, and community groups are invited to attend and participate. The Joint Task Force on the Underground Economy welcomes your testimony about workplace fraud and employee misclassification. How has your workplace, business or community been impacted?

If you do wish to testify at this event, please bring extra copies of your written remarks for the Joint Task Force to keep. If you cannot attend, but would like your testimony to be included at this meeting, please send it in advance. All testimony relevant to the work of the Joint Task Force can be sent on an ongoing basis to Heather Rowe, Deputy Commissioner, Division of Occupational Safety, Charles F. Hurley Building, 19 Staniford St., 2nd floor, Boston, MA 02114 or e-mailed to: heather.rowe@state.ma.us.

For media inquiries about this session or the Joint Task Force, please contact Alison Harris, Director of Communications, Executive Office of Labor and Workforce Development at 617-626-7121 or alison.harris@state.ma.us.
