NEW JOBS

The law firm of Nutter McClennen & Fish LLP has announced that Eliza Cox has been elected partner. Cox is a member of the firm's real estate and finance department and works out of its Hyannis office.

Cox was instrumental with the working group that reviewed the Cape Cod Commission's 2009 Regional Policy Plan and provided suggested language and testimony before the full commission. She is a member of the board of trustees of the Sturgis Library, the board of directors of the Hyannis Area Chamber of Commerce, the board of directors of the YMCA of Cape Cod, and the board of directors of The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod.

Cox holds a bachelor's degree from Middlebury College and a J.D. from Northeastern University School of Law.

ANNOUNCEMENTS

The Associated Industries of Massachusetts International Business Council is seeking nominations for the 15th annual Global Trade Awards. The awards recognize Massachusetts businesses, institutions and public agencies of all sizes that have demonstrated creativity and leadership in their international trade activities.

Past winners of the award have been chosen for one or more of the following reasons: increasing or retaining jobs in the state by entering international markets; demonstrating new or creative solutions to the challenges of importing or exporting; producing or adapting a product line or service for a foreign market; establishing alliances or partnerships to increase international business; and investing in infrastructure or manufacturing in Massachusetts to enhance trade.

The deadline for nominations is March 12. Forms and further information are available at www.aimnet.org/international.

Send submissions to Cape Commerce, Cape Cod Times, 319 Main St., Hyannis, MA 02601 or e-mail them to business@capecodonline.com (include the phrase "Cape Business" in the subject line). Include a contact phone number. Photos may be mailed or e-mailed in jpg form. Call Cindy Carlson with questions, 508-862-1202.
