

HORIZONS

AAA Southern New England

ADVENTURE CLOSE TO HOME

3

Get Out! Three things to do this month for under $10.

1 Meet the Muppets

Through Sun., Jan. 25, the Provincetown Art Association & Museum features the work of puppet designer Ed Christie in its Duffy Gallery. Mr. Christie has worked with The Jim Henson Company for 27 years, creating puppets for classics like "Fraggle Rock," "The Muppet Show" and "Sesame Street." Admission: $5; free ages 12 and under. Free for all Friday evenings. Visit www.paam.org.

2 The Rainbow Connection

The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod presents "ROYGBIV: Exploring the Color Spectrum" from Sat., Jan. 3, to Sat., Feb. 7, at the Cotuit Center for the Arts. The work of more than 50 Cape artists celebrates color. Art will be displayed at children's eye level, and there will be kid-friendly events throughout the month. Free admission. Visit www.artsfoundationcapecod.org/roygbiv.html.

3 "C" is for Chowder

Warm up on a chilly New England afternoon with a steaming bowl of soup or chowder. This year's Nantasket Beach Soup and Chowder Festival takes place noon-2:30 p.m. Sat., Jan. 31, at the Clarion Nantasket Beach Hotel Resort & Spa. Sample more than a dozen soups and chowders from local restaurants. Admission: $10. Visit www.hullchamber.com/events.htm.

For more listings, visit AAA.com/horizons.