News that Walter Cronkite is ill took us back to the night in the 1960s when he and other broadcasters returned to duty after a strike. Gracious as ever, he saluted his temporary replacement, a CBS executive, with, "This is Walter Cronkite, filling in for Arnold Zenker."... Cronkite is one of the privileged few who have conducted the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra during its annual visit to Hyannis. General admission lawn tickets ($15) for the Aug. 2 performance went on sale July 2 at TD Banknorth locations, Christmas Tree Shops, Puritan in Hyannis, and the Cape Cod Mall information desk.
