YARMOUTH — Cape Cod Maritime Festival is this weekend. The 8th annual Cape Cod Maritime Festival on the Hyannis waterfront at the Cape Cod Maritime Museum, adjoining Aselton Park and at the Hyannis Marina, is 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. Saturday and Sunday, June 13 and 14. Explore the tall ship Peacemaker, book a sail on the catboat Sarah or the Black Dog Tall Ship Alabama, enjoy colorful and exciting exhibits, arts and crafts, children's entertainment, musical performers, pirates and seafood. Festival admission is free. For more information, visit CapeCodMaritimeMuseum.org. A VIP Pirates Ball will be 7 to 11 p.m. Friday, June 12, behind the Cape Cod Maritime Museum. The "Fun-raiser" will be a costume (optional) party, hors d'oeuvres and cash bar, with auctions and raffles to benefit the Museum and kick off the Maritime Festival.

Support group for adults who have lost parents

A new support group is forming for adults who have lost parents at Hospice & Palliative Care of Cape Cod, 765 Attucks Lane, Hyannis. "Adult Orphans: Forging a New Identity after Parental Loss" will examine the effects of parental loss on self-identity and explore ways to reconstruct a new sense of self and meaning. Sessions will be 5 to 6:30 p.m. Thursdays June 18-July 30. Call Laura Nickerson at 508-957-0266 to register or for more information. Most insurances are accepted; no one will be turned away due to inability to pay.

Volunteers needed for Pops by the Sea

The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod is looking for volunteers to help at the 24th annual TD Banknorth Pops by the Sea concert Sunday, Aug. 2 on the Hyannis Village Green. Volunteers are needed to help set up before the concert, to monitor parking lots, collect and sell tickets, lead group tours and much more.

Complete job descriptions and registration instructions can be found online at artsfoundation.org or by calling 508-362-0066. All Pops volunteers who go through the required training prior to the event and complete their volunteer shifts will receive two free lawn tickets to the concert and a commemorative T-shirt.

Alzheimer's program at Museum of Art

The Cape Cod Museum of Art, in partnership with Alzheimer's Services of Cape Cod and the Islands, presents an art-related program for people living with Alzheimer's and their caregivers at 1 p.m. Monday, June 15. Museum educators will lead discussions of artwork in the museum's galleries at 60 Hope Lane, Dennis.

The newly established program provides an opportunity for people living with Alzheimer's to get together with their peers once a month at the museum of art. For more information on the program or to make a reservation, call 508-385-4477, ext. 16. The program is free.
