Autumn adventures at Fall for the Arts

Written by Patriot Staff

Hundreds of chances to experience Cape's cultural bounty

More than 450 museums, galleries, theaters and other cultural groups are participating in the second Fall for the Arts Festival today (Oct. 2) through Sunday in all 15 Cape towns. Many businesses and dining establishments are in the mix as well.

Sponsored by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod and Cape Cod View, the festival offers special programs at venues familiar and unfamiliar.

Among those in town are "Assorted Strands," presenting an evening of spoken yarns at Centerville Historical Museum on Main Street tonight at 7:30. One village over, the Marstons Mills Public Library will host a book cover design contest open to all ages. Entries are due today and will be displayed Oct. 9.

The art of "creative book altering" will be explored at The Old School House, 3228 Main St. in Barnstable, from 1 to 3 p.m. Sunday. For a full schedule, go to www.artsfoundation.org.
