

LOCA-G/Lower and Outer Cape Artists Group

This blog has been created to provide call information and access to professional resources available online for artists working and/or living on the Lower Cape.

WOMR AUGUST 28

SHOWS

An Artist's Reaction to War
curated by Cecilia Rossey

Dadian Gallery
The Henry Luce III Center
for the Arts and Religion
Wesley Theological Seminary
4500 Massachusetts Ave.
NW
Washington, DC
www.wesleyseminary.edu/lcar
8/31-10/9

in the Board Room:
Cecilia Rossey, War
Memorial: Iraq and Afghanistan

THURSDAY, SEPTEMBER 10, 2009

● ● ● Celebrate Arts and Culture at the Second Annual FALL FOR THE ARTS

Three-Day Regional Festival Will Feature More Than 450 Venues Across Cape Cod

The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod and Cape Cod VIEW Magazine are delighted to announce that the Second Annual Fall for the Arts Festival will be celebrated on the weekend of Friday, October 2 - Sunday, October 4.

Fall for the Arts promotes and celebrates the vibrant arts and culture of Cape Cod. Cape residents and visitors will enjoy free, family-friendly performances by local musicians; arts and crafts workshops and demonstrations; guided tours; delicious food; and a spectrum of activities at hundreds of venues, including artist studios, museums, galleries, restaurants, libraries and parks.

All fifteen Cape towns are participating and showcasing the unique artistic flavor and flair of their communities. Please visit www.artsfoundation.org/fall-for-the-arts for a town-by-town list of the festival happenings.

Members of the Cape's creative community are encouraged to get involved with the Festival and take advantage of the great promotional opportunities offered by the AFCC to Fall for the Arts participants.

Museums, Galleries, Theaters, Libraries and Artists - contact the AFCC NOW to be featured in our Fall for the Arts webpages. To list your event call 508-362-0066 or email info@artsfoundation.org.

Posted by leigh at 9:22 PM

