

■ Work up an appetite for the second annual "Cape Cod Life Food & Wine Festival," showcasing the region's finest chefs and restaurants. The first course in the seven-day festival is a grand opening tasting from 3 to 6 p.m. Sunday at the Rectrix Aerodrome Center, 730 Barnstable Road, Hyannis. It includes food tastings, wines, presentations from local artists and musicians and cooking demonstrations. Billy Costa, host of NECN's "TV Diner," returns as emcee, and Chatham resident and master sabreur Kevin Howard ticks off the festivities with an official champagne sabering ceremony. Proceeds benefit the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod. The festival, sponsored by Cape Cod Life Publications, continues at different locations daily through June 6. Tickets: $20 for each reception; $75 for the June 6 Food & Wine Tasting Finale at Heritage Museums & Gardens, Sandwich. Information: www.capecodlife.com or 800-595-4849.
