

"Burgess Birds" - An Exhibit Opening

Saturday, January 9, 2010 01:00 PM - 04:00 PM

The Thornton W. Burgess Society opens its first special exhibit for the 2010 season at its Green Briar Nature Center.

"Burgess Birds" details Burgess' impact on migratory bird protection using original illustrations by Harrison Cady and mounted specimens. The exhibit runs through April and is funded in part by a grant from the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod.

Public is invited to opening reception on Saturday, January 9 from 1pm to 4pm.
