

This Just In... By Patriot Staff

Popular

- Massachusetts health care reform 2010
- Business briefs 4-16-10
- Complaint against BHS music director moves forward
- A concert for a cause
- Obituaries 4-16-10
- GAUVIN: Tax services too? Why not install pay toilets in every home while we're at it
- EDITORIAL: Hiding in plain sight
- Real Estate Transactions 04-16-10
- No sale for out-of-towners
- STATE OF THE TOWN: Downtown, art initiatives unveiled

Latest Additions

- Real Estate Transactions 04-16-10
- Business briefs 4-16-10
- Middle ground sought on holding tank requirement
- STATE OF THE TOWN: Downtown, art initiatives unveiled
- Regulations for boat outhauls proposed
- A village that eats together
- Are Overnights over?
- This Just In...4-16-10
- Sandy Neck Board may rethink charging cottage guests
- Council funding committee formed

Apr
16
2010

This Just In...4-16-10

Written by Patriot Staff

Get ready to update the Rolodex, if you still have one. Rehabilitation Hospital of the Cape and Islands is changing its name as of October to Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital – Cape Cod. A press statement from the Sandwich hospital noted that the facility was developed by Spaulding Rehabilitation Hospital and is part of the Spaulding Rehabilitation Network. Chief Executive Officer Carol Sim said the hospital "is not making any changes to RHCI's leadership, staff, physicians, board of trustees or services. Sim added that donations to the Sandwich facility will continue to be dedicated to on-Cape services. Even though "Islands" will disappear from its name, RHCI will continue to serve patients from Martha's Vineyard and Nantucket, as well as South Shore and South Coast residents.... Visit Mother's on Earth Day: The Centerville Beautification Committee invites you to lend a hand during its spring cleaning of Mother's Park on Phinney's Lane April 24 at 9:30 a.m. Bring your garden gloves and shovels.... As hoped, all lanes of the Sagamore Bridge reopened April 13 and will stay that way through Monday, Patriot's Day. At 10 a.m. Tuesday, it's back to one-each-way restrictions to complete repairs before Memorial Day.... Yes, you could call them warm-up acts, but they're no second bananas. The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod announced this week the three acts that will perform on the Hyannis village green Aug. 1 before the annual appearance of the Boston Pops Esplanade Orchestra. They include the 14-piece Stage Door Canteen big band, the Fred Clayton Blues Band and Crabgrass Bluegrass Band. For ticket info, go to www.artsfoundation.org.... Too Late for the Listings: Today (April 16) is National Healthcare Decisions Day, and the Visiting Nurse Association of Cape Cod will have information available from 9 a.m. to 3 p.m. in the Mugar Lobby at Cape Cod Hospital in Hyannis. Learn more about advance directives such as health care power of attorney and living wills.... This one snuck up on us. The Provincetown Cabaret Fest opens tonight (April 16) offering a slew of shows through the 18th at the Crown & Anchor on Commercial Street and several other venues. Go to <http://artsfoundation.org/ptown-cabaret> for more info.... It's a '60s weekend at Wellfleet Harbor Actors Theater. First up tonight (April 16) and again April 20 is William Kunstler: Disturbing the Universe, a documentary about the lawyer who represented the Chicago 8. On Sunday (April 18), you can catch a full-length Grateful Dead concert on the big screen. More info at www.what.org.... On April 24 from 10 a.m. to noon, Bayside Kitchen & Bath at 847 Main St. in Falmouth will host an open house highlighting green remodeling options.... Also on the 24th, Heritage Museums & Gardens has lots of fun planned for its Sandwich acres as an "Earth Celebration." For details, go to www.heritagemuseumsandgardens.org.

Popular Current News

- Complaint against BHS music director moves forward
- Obituaries 4-16-10
- No sale for out-of-towners
- STATE OF THE TOWN: Downtown, art initiatives unveiled
- This Just In...4-16-10
- A village that eats together
- Are Overnights over?
- Council funding committee formed
- Middle ground sought on holding tank requirement
- Sandy Neck Board may rethink charging cottage guests