

This Just In...

By Patriot Staff

Popular

- GAUVIN: Perry taking Brown machete to slash health care reform from tree of life
- From The Senate: Health insurance reforms will boost economy
- Marstons Mills man to speak in Hyannis
- Mills company's green design a national hit
- Teacher pours new ideas into recycled bottles
- Yearning to earn full citizenship
- Hearts will flutter for Madama Butterfly
- Cape transit authority catches second wind
- Two times three equals charity
- Northsiders side with the environment

Apr
23
2010

This Just In...4-23-10

Written by Patriot Staff

Hilary Greene of Centerville must have the world's longest bucket list, even though she's crossed off a bunch of items. Donate a lobe of your lung to a stranger? Done that. Run the Boston Marathon six years later? Done this week, according to a front-page feature in The Boston Globe.... Idle thought on a visit to Manhattan: With all the recent construction crane collapses in New York City, some of them deadly, why does Chase Bank have this banner over one of its branches on Broadway: "If there's a scaffold, we're under it.".... You missed your chance to attend this year's Daffodil Tea at St. Mary's Episcopal Church in Barnstable Village, but you can show up April 24 from 10 a.m. to 4 p.m. anyway and check out the Garden Theme Boutique. Sales of handcrafted items will continue on April 25 from 11 a.m. to 1 p.m.... Celebrate Arbor Day April 30 at 10 a.m. with the Centerville Beautification Committee as members gather to plant a tree at Ayling Park on South Main Street in memory of longtime member Francis M. Kelly.... Cape musician Chandler Travis continues to have a good year. Five songs by his Incredible Casuals are in the new Jeff Bridges movie, Paper Man.... You might want to make sure all the ants are out of your picnic basket and get it ready for another season of free Arts Foundation of Cape Cod concerts Tuesdays at 6 p.m. at Aselton Park on Hyannis harbor. The series, offered in collaboration with the town, begins June 29 with Groovy Afternoon and concludes Aug. 17 with the music of the Fred Clayton Blues Band. Watch our listings for these shows and Arts Foundation concerts in seven other venues through the summer.... More Arts Foundation news: The county's designated arts organization will award $25,216 in grants to 23 Cape organizations April 29 at the Provincetown Art Association and Museum. Of particular local interest is a $1,000 grant to Sturgis Library for a multi-media projector to be shared among the seven village libraries. Tales of Cape Cod, headquartered in Barnstable Village's Olde Colonial Courthouse, will get $1,500 to digitize its archive of historical interviews with Cape Codders.... More concert news: Cape Cod Melody Tent announced 10 new shows for its summer season including, on July 17, The Happy Together Tour featuring The Turtles, The Grass Roots, The Buckingham's, Mickey Dolenz of The Monkees and Mark Lindsay of Paul Revere and the Raiders. Comedian Chelsea Handler will be in town July 31 for two shows, at what may be the Tent's top price ever: $92. Like the $10 movie ticket, a $100 Tent show is probably inevitable.... Too Late for the Listings: Tonight (April 23) is Disco night (no, really) at the Cultural Center of Cape Cod in South Yarmouth. Admission is $15. To reserve a table, call 508-760-4071. Fabulous!.... A farmers market at Exit 6 on Route 6? That's what the Boston Globe reported this week in an item about the expansion of a Massachusetts Turnpike program to other highway plazas, including Route 3 in Plymouth. If you'd like to participate, contact Dave Fenton at 413-572-3171 or dave.fenton@state.ma.us.... Congratulations to the winners of the Cape Cod Chamber of Commerce's 2010 Business Excellence Awards: Shawn DeLude of Nauset Disposal (Jack Gay Ambassador Award), Cape & Islands United Way (non-profit), Cape Medical Supply staff (health care), Mac's Seafood (hospitality), and OpenCape (Chamber chairman's award). You can cheer them on at the SBA Cape & Islands Small Business Recovery Expo on April 29 at 7:30 a.m. at the Cape Codder Resort & Spa on Route 132 in Hyannis. The event, which includes a panel presentation and one-on-one time with lenders, is free; to register, contact Chris Carter at 617-565-5560 or christine.carter@sba.gov.... xx

Latest Additions

- Real Estate Transactions 04-23-10
- The whole world smiles with you
- Sun, fun shine on Patriot's Day Run
- Council says sewer moratorium petition has no merit
- Northsiders side with the environment
- UNDER CONSTRUCTION: New Route 28 lights started
- Yearning to earn full citizenship
- Cape transit authority catches second wind
- This Just In...4-23-10
- Airport noise complaints drop in 2009

Popular Current News

- Marstons Mills man to speak in Hyannis
- Mills company's green design a national hit
- Yearning to earn full citizenship
- Cape transit authority catches second wind
- Northsiders side with the environment
- This Just In...4-23-10
- Flu clinic set for April 28
- UNDER CONSTRUCTION: New Route 28 lights started
- Volunteers needed for Barnstable Big Fix
- Council says sewer moratorium petition has no merit