The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod unveils the 2010/2011 Passport to the Arts

Published on Monday, April 26, 2010

The 2010/2011 Passport to the Arts, offering a 50% discount on admission to 48 Cape Cod theaters, museums, historical sites, and performances, will be launched on April 29, 2010 at the Spring Grant Awards Ceremony at Provincetown Art Association and Museum.

"The Arts Foundation of Cape Cod is proud to self-fund this valuable program to tangibly benefit arts and culture lovers on Cape Cod, as well as all 48 participating cultural organizations. The Passport to the Arts is a model of impactful regional arts marketing, and a fantastic way to showcase the Cape's cultural community in all its diversity. The Passport to the Arts is the best purchase an arts lover on Cape Cod can make; enabling anyone to explore all the best arts and culture Cape Cod has to offer," said Margaret Van Sciver, President of the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod.

Now in its seventh year, the Passport to the Arts has evolved from a small group of eight organizations to its current roster of 48 cultural organizations, representing the very best of the arts and culture of Cape Cod. The Passport is a beautifully designed, souvenir-quality booklet with information about each participating organization. Passport holders will be able to receive a 50% discount on admission to select events at each participating venue once during the course of the year. Each member venue sets its own restrictions and rules of use, so Passport holders must call venues in advance to ensure availability.

The Passport to the Arts, which is produced by the Arts Foundation of Cape Cod, is available for purchase online at www.artsfoundation.org.

Participating organizations include:

- Academy of Performing Arts
